Original Poetry.

For the Republican.

JAPTHAH'S DAUGHTER.

CONTINUED.

BY BECKIE HARRIS.

With timbrel stood, she, at the wood,
To greet her fathee dear,
And hail him gay with cheerful lay,
When he would first appear.

The gentle air brushed back her hair,
And heaved a moaning sigh;
As Jepthah rode, from out the wood,
And saw her standing by.

Guarded by men, he came again,
With helmet, sword, and lance;
His life was saved, but more he craved,
For her's was left to chance.

He told her all, how she must fall,
Slain by her father's hand;
His more than life, his pride in strife,
The beauty of the land.

And there she stood, so sweet and good,
With dreamy wandering eyes;
The facts tho' plain, were fought in vain,
And hard to realize.

And she so sweet, knelt at his feet,
Bade him to weep no more,
Promised she'd stand, at God's right hand,
And open Heaven's door.
For him to tread with others dead,
The pearly shining shore.

Select Miscellany.

The Harmonious Democracy.

"Every day," as the old song hath it, "Every day brings something new."—And so, indeed, it does. Almost every day in the week, one or other of our exchanges informs us of dissatisfaction or defection in the ranks of the "harmonious Democracy." We are sorry to disturb the ill feigned serenity of our political antagonists, but truth demands voice, and we must give it. It is not only in Luzerne, Berks and Lycoming, those strongholds of Democracy in the by-gone years, but in other sections, also, that the spirit of the old party is troubled, and the hearts of the once faithful, have become disaffected and rebellious. Nor is this, in the least, surprising; for did not Packer himself, now the candidate of the party for Governor, on two occasions, at least, violate the fealty he had pledged, and bolt the regular nominations? Did he not, in 1850, or 1851, (we forget the year,) bolt from the nomination of Judge Campbell, when that distinguished lawyer was the Democratic candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court, because the Judge was a Roman Catholic, and support Coulter, the Whig candidate, because he was not a Roman Catholic? And further, did he not, in 1855, bolt the nomination of Geo. B. Barrett, the regular nominee of the Democratic party for Judge of the Carbon, Wayne &c., judicial district, and support John S. Bell, the favorite candidate of the Know Nothings? Did not Packer, who is now, through the Patriot, the central organ of the party, calling upon the Democratic hosts to rally to his support, do these things? Who, among all his well-paid supporters, will deny it? He will not; nor will any Democratic press in the State. They dare not, because it is true, and susceptible of proof.

Well, then, if he could commit these offenses against party organization and discipline without subjecting himself to expulsion from the ranks, or leaving a stain upon his Democracy, as would appear to be the case from the fact of his now being the standard-bearer of the party, why may not others, in consideration of objections they may have to the man, personally, or to the manner of his nomination, or for other reason satisfactory to themselves, bolt his nomination without impairing their standing in the party? Why, indeed? Who would condemn them? Not Asa Packer, himself a bolter, who set the example; not his organs—central, interior, or of the circumference, for to condemn them, would be condemnation of him, the Great Mogul and purse holder of the party, by whom they expect to profit, even if they should not elect him to the Gubernatorial office.

It is perfectly safe, then, for Democrats to bolt Packer, and they seem to be aware of the fact, if we may judge from the disaffection which, in various quarters, is disturbing the harmony of the party, and shaking the confidence of success which was so universally expressed by its organs immediately after the nomination. And good reason have they to be doubtful of the result; for, while the harmony of the Republican party is not disturbed in any quarter, (except, perhaps, by a few surface ripples in two or three counties, solely affecting local politics,) the unity of the Democratic party, on the Gubernatorial question, is seriously broken in several of their strongholds. They are annoyed by disaffection in Lycoming, Berks, Luserne, and, more or less, throughout the whole eastern section of the State.—And how is it with them in the West?—We are just beginning to perceive the "troubling of the waters" in that section. The angel of discord has touched them, and they show signs of commotion. The friends of Cass have been quiet, heretofore, but they have not forgotten that he was cheated out of the nomination by Packer's hucksters, who trafficked money for votes. They have cherished the remembrance of this foul deed, and they can hardly be expected to sanction, with their votes, the corruption by which Packer carried the Convention. Indeed we have a sign from that section which is significant of the feeling which pervades the Cass wing of the party. R. H Kerr, of McClure tp., Allegheny county, has published the following card in the Pittsburg Gazette.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—The Weekly Post, of Saturday, contains a notice of my appointment as chairman of a committee on registration, for which, I presume, I am indebted to my friend, Mr Hopkins. I have acted with the Democracy for more than forty years, dating from '28, and now consider myself entitled to a respite from active political duty. The action of the late convention in proposing to degrade me to a level with an infidel, elected by Orange ruffians, by making me a half voter, when, all my life, I have been a full voter, I consider insulting to my loyalty, and disrespectful to my standing as a Democrat. I, therefore, decline accepting the position, as I did a seat in a convention which recognized bogus Democrats and infidels, who know not, or care not, for anything but money. I, therefore, with all proper respect for the Chairman of the County Convention, beg to be excused from active duty. I am the register in my district, and will perform the duty without fear or favor. I care for no man's politics in my official capacity. Most respectfully, R. H. KERR, of McClure township.

R. H. Kerr, better known here, and elsewhere throughout the State, as Benton Kerr, is a Democrat of forty years standing. He is an intelligent man—has always been an active partisan, and has several times been placed as a candidate on the Democratic ticket of Allegheny county—once or twice for the Legislature. He is a shrewd politician, and would not take the stand he has, or utter the language which we find in his card, without the approbation of the leading friends of Gen. Cass in Allegheny; and as that wing of the party feels in Allegheny, it is fair to presume it feels throughout the West. The card of Mr. Kerr is indicative of discord in the ranks of the Western Democracy. It threatens disaster to the money bags candidate; and taken in connection with the similar feeling in the East, we think Packer and his friends may as well "hang their harps upon the willows," and prepare to meet, decently, the doom that awaits them. Any further effort on their part, in a cause so hopeless, will be but a loss of labor.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Our Continent.

The Discovery of America by the Chinese.

Was Columbus the first discoverer of America, or did he only discover that continent after it had, in remote ages, been found, peopled, and forgotten by the Old World? It is curious that this question has not been more generally raised, for it is very clear that one of two things must be true; either the people whom Columbus found in America must have been descended from emigrants from the Old World, and, therefore, America was known to the Old World before Columbus' time, or else the aborigines of the Western Hemisphere were the result of spontaneous human generation, the development of man from a lower species of animal, or descended from a second Adam and Eve whose origin would be equally puzzling. Unless we are prepared to cast aside Holy Writ, and all our general notions of the origin of the human race, we must believe that there was, at one time, communication between the Old World and the New.—Probably this communication took place on the opposite side of the world to ours, between the eastern coast of Asia and the side of America most remote from Europe, and I believe it is quite possible that the inhabitants of Eastern Asia, may have been aware of the existence of America, and kept up intercourse with it, while our part of the Old World never dreamt of its existence. The impenetrable barrier the Chinese were always anxious to preserve between themselves and the rest of the nations of the Old World, renders it quite possible that they should have kept their knowledge of America to themselves, or, at any rate, from Europe. The objection that the art of navigation in such remote times was not sufficiently advanced to enable the Chinese to cross the Pacific, and land on the western shore of America, is not conclusive, as we have now found that arts and sciences, which were once generally supposed to be of quite modern origin, existed in China ages and ages before their discovery in Europe. The arts of paper making and printing, amongst others, had been practiced in China long before Europeans had any idea of them. Why, then, should not the Chinese have been equally, or more, in advance of us in navigation? The stately ruins of Baalbec, with gigantic arches across the streets, whose erection would puzzle our modern engineers, the Pyramids, and other such remains of stupendous works point to a state of civilization, and the existence of arts and sciences, in times of which European historians give no account.

One fact corroborative of the idea that the Old World, or at least some of the inhabitants of Asia were once aware of the existence of America before its discovery by Columbus is, that many of the Arabian ulema with whom I have conversed on this subject are fully convinced that the ancient Arabian geographers knew of America, and in support of this opinion, point to passages in old works, in which a country to the west of the Atlantic is spoken of. An Arab gentleman, a friend of mine, General Hussein Pasha, in a work he has just written on America, called El-Nasr-et Fayir, quotes from Djeldeki, and other old writers, to show this.

There is, however, among Chinese records, not merely vague references to a country to the West of the Atlantic, but a circumstantial account of its discovery by the Chinese long before Columbus was born.

A competent authority on such matters, J. Hanlay, the Chinese interpreter in San Francisco, has lately written an essay on this subject, from which we gather the following startling statements, drawn from Chinese historians and geographers:

Fourteen hundred years ago, even, America had been discovered by the Chinese, and described by them. They stated that land to be about 20,000 Chinese miles distant from China. About 500 years after the birth of Christ, Buddhist priests repaired there, and brought back the news that they had met with Buddhist idols and religious writings in the country already. Their descriptions, in many respects, resemble those of the Spaniards a thousand years after. They called the country "Fusang," after a tree which grew there, whose leaves resemble those of the bamboo, whose bark the natives made clothes and paper out of, and whose fruit they ate. These particulars correspond exactly, and remarkably with those given by the American historian, Prescott, about the maguay tree in Mexico. He states that the Aztecs prepared a pulp for paper-making out of the bark of this tree. Then, even its leaves were used for thatching; its fibres for making ropes; its roots yielded a nourishing food; and its sap, by means of fermentation, was made into an intoxicating drink. The accounts given by the Chinese and Spaniards, although a thousand years apart, agree in stating that the natives did not possess any iron, but only copper; that they made all their tools, for working in stone and metals, out of a mixture of copper and tin; and they, in comparison with the nations of Europe and Asia, thought but little of the worth of silver and gold. The religious customs and forms of worship presented the same characteristics to the Chinese fourteen hundred years ago, as to the Spaniards four hundred years ago.

There is, moreover, a remarkable resemblance between the religion of the Aztecs, and the Buddhism of the Chinese, as well as between the manners and customs of the Aztecs and those of the people of China. There is also a great similarity between the features of the Indian tribes of Middle and South America and those of the Chinese, and, as Hanlay, the Chinese interpreter of whom we spoke above, states, between the accent, and most of the monosyllabic words of the Chinese and Indian languages.—Indeed, this writer gives a list of words which point to a close relationship; and infers therefrom that there must have been emigration from China to the American continent at a most early period indeed, as the official accounts of Buddhist priests fourteen hundred years ago, notice these things as existing already. Perhaps now old records may be recovered in China, which may furnish full particulars of this question. It is, at any rate, remarkable and confirmative of the idea of emigration from China to America at some remote period, that at the time of the discovery of America by the Spaniards, the Indian tribes on the coast of the Pacific, opposite to China, for the most part, enjoyed a state of culture of ancient growth, while the inhabitants of the Atlantic shore were found by Europeans in a state of original barbarism. If the idea of America having been discovered before the time of Columbus be correct, it only goes to prove that there is nothing new under the sun; and that Shelley was right in his bold but beautiful lines: "Thou canst not find one spot, whereon no city stood." Admitting this, who can tell whether civilization did not exist in America when we were plunged in barbarism? and, stranger still, whether the endless march of ages, in rolling over our present cultivation, may not obliterate it, and sever the two hemispheres, once again, from each other's cognizance? Possibly, man is destined, in striving after civilization, to be like Sisiphus, always engaged in rolling up a stone which ever falls down.—Every Saturday.

HEARTS are not trumps in the great game of life. As a sentiment the heart is commonly regarded as pretty, but as a fact of little account. It is quite the thing to splurge about the little beater, but the world really holds it in no more estimation than did Shylock. Money is the trump card, and to which all others in the pack pay homage. If any dispute this, let him open his eyes and look about him.

"STRANGER, will you try a hand with us at poker?" "Thank you, gentlemen, but there are seventeen reasons why I cannot accommodate you just now." "Seventeen reasons for not playing cards! Pray, what are they?" "Why, the first is, I haven't any money." "Stop that's enough: never mind the other sixteen!"

"I SHOULD be ashamed," said an old lady to a girl dressed for a party, "to make a show of myself." "It is not what I show, Aunty," returned the young lady, "that makes me ashamed, but what I lack," and she pointed to her thin chest and slender arms.

A GENTLEMAN giving a lecture to some boys, was explaining how no one could live without air. He then said: "You have all heard of a man drowning—how does that happen?" The ready answer was, "Cause he can't swim."

Repudiation.

The repudiators are getting bold as they advance to the ballot-box, and if the people of Pennsylvania vote for Packer in October in view of the deliberate declarations of his intimate friend, Vallandigham, whom he entertained so handsomely at his residence shortly after the war, and Geo. H. Pendleton, Brick Pomeroy, Andrew Johnson, and Emerson Etheridge, they will have done their level best to precipitate that catastrophe.

Last Tuesday evening Andrew Johnson spoke at Knoxville, Tennessee in the course of which he used these words, as printed in the Knoxville Press and Herald of Wednesday, the 18th of August:

There is a debt owing by the United States amounting to $2,600,000,000. The men who are engaged in the conspiracy to change this Government into an empire say that this debt was "created to preserve the Republic." Now, what is assumed? Simply that we must destroy this Republic for the purpose of paying the debt by converting the Republic into an empire. My countrymen, before God and this people to-night, I would rather that the Republic was preserved and the debt let go. [Loud cheers.] This debt was created to save the Republic. Now the Republic must be destroyed to pay the debt. Rather let the Government be preserved and let the debt go.

The election of Johnson to the United States Senate would be preferred by most of the Democratic leaders of the North, and on this platform. The election of Packer in Pennsylvania, and Pendleton in Ohio, would be the endorsement of this platform. Repudiation was never so near the hearts of the Southern leaders as it is to-day, and Packer and Pendleton have always acted with these leaders. Phila. Press.

The Difference.

Packer is a millionaire. An adventurer from Connecticut, he has amassed a large fortune in Pennsylvania, the greater portion of which he has invested in New York. When the war of the rebellion broke out, he fled to Europe for safety, leaving others to take care of his property, and the interests of the State and the county.

Geary is a poor man, having devoted his life to the benefit of the Commonwealth and the nation rather than to his own personal interests. When the war of the rebellion broke out he offered his services as a soldier to the State and the country, and lived in the camp and field till treason was crushed, though he had no wide estates of his own to protect.

When men were needed to defeat the rebellion, Packer packed off to Europe with his sons, lest they might be conscripted, and he would be compelled to pay a portion of his millions to procure them substitutes.

When men were needed to defeat the rebellion, Geary gave himself and his two sons to the Union army, in which they fought bravely in defense of the nation.

When the war was raging Packer and his sons were enjoying a jolly good time in Europe, luxuriating to their hearts' content, and exulting in their safety from danger.

When the war raged fiercest Geary was "above the clouds," driving the enemy from Lookout Mountain, his eldest son lying a corpse with a rebel bullet in his head, and his youngest boy wounded and sadly lamenting the death of the brother whom he so dearly loved.

And yet this man Packer, an adventurer in the State that he deserted in the hour of its danger, has the effrontery to ask the people of Pennsylvania to ignore the services of Geary, and give him their votes for Governor.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

An Unfortunate Allusion.

It was hoped by both his friends and his enemies that the last Democratic Governor of Pennsylvania would have been permitted to rest and die quietly in the seclusion he sought.—The Republican party has never manifested any disposition to drag him from his silent retreat. But the great office potter, in his speech at Bellefonte once more presents him to the public gaze. It is painful to think that during his administration the great public works of the Commonwealth passed away without any equivalent return into the public treasury. It is painful to think that hundreds of thousands of dollars that should have gone into the public treasury found a more private depository. But painful as these things are to contemplate, we were willing that they should not be resurrected from the tomb in which they were buried. But the first Packer's memory has been revived; and its revival will cause every good citizen fervently to pray, "God save the commonwealth from a SECOND DEMOCRATIC PACKER!" Harrisburg Telegraph.

PACKER'S POPULARITY AT HOME.—The Easton Free Press says evidences of Packer's unpopularity in the Lehigh Valley grow stronger every day. He will not poll 90 per cent. of the party vote.

ADVERTISING.—The BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN has a larger circulation than any other Republican paper published in the county. Our merchants and business men will please make a note of this.

GET UP CLUBS.—We hope that our friends in each of the townships will go to work to secure us a list of subscribers for the campaign. The price of the Republican for three Months is ——50 cts. Every memberof the party should subscribe for it. We appeal to Post Masters and others to get up clubs for the Republican.

ARE YOU REGISTERED?—All citizens who desire to vote at the October election, should see to it that their names are on the Registry, as made by the Assessors, under the new Registry law. Naturalized citizens must present their certificates to the Assessor when applying for registration, unless they have been voters in the district five consecutive years. It is well to attend to this matter in time, so that all who are entitled to vote shall be registered.

WOODRING has already assumed charge of the jail. Several Republicans desirous of seeing some prisoners were blandly told that visitors were not admitted. Within ten minutes thereafter a party of half a dozen Democrats applied for admission, and no objection was offered to their entrance. Has it come to this that the servants of the people, clothed with a little brief authority, shall be permitted to hoist themselves on a pair of flea's legs, and assume the ownship of our county buildings?

☞The Watchman, with malice aforetho't, inherent as a prime necessity with the Democratic party, attempts to spring a point alleged to exist between our candidates for Sheriff and Prothonotary—Jerry Butts and Capt. Barr. We do not, of course, anticipate the least concern on the part of the Republicans of Centre county on account of this chronic inflamation of Meek's, and sympathetically suggest that facial grimaces over unfounded but hoped for results, be turned to wry (not rye,) contortions over the terribly apparent breach existing between several of the Democratic nominees in this county. "Such a time as never was."

NEXT WEEK.—Our paper is full, and we are not half done. The Registry Law, a most important, and yet the least understood of our late State enactments—the unfitness, specifically, personally and otherwise, of certain Democratic county nominees—several good personal notices of Millheim and Aaronsburg celebrities—a whole batch of live points on various copperhead sinners—several "big things" undreamed of by the public—a continuation of J. G. Moyer's, alias Meyer's "peculiarities"—in fact, the biggest, livest, truest, best REPUBLICAN ever issued, will be mailed next week, and its equal every succeeding week until the Court House Ring is squelched, and the Republican party of Centre county are declared the victors.

WHAT a mellifluous quartette—Jacob G. Moyer, alias Meyer, Jim. Burns, Gen. Jim. Potter, and, occasionally, when in town after stamps, Fred. Kurtz—it will be when Moyer, or Meyer, gets his singing class organized in the lobby at Harrisburg. Miles township singers, whom he pronounces incompetent to comprehend his system of teaching, will please take back seats. Glorious quartette—illustrious warblers—renowned children of song. "Ile" your throats—Haines oil is good and sound the chord. This was the programme; but the people of Centre county have decided to disband the band, and sutler Moyer, alias Meyer, to continue his fa sol laing whenever he can find people with "capacity" to comprehend his "system."

MOYER, alias Meyer, is making arrangements to open a singing school in one of the lobby rooms at Harrisburg. Jim. Burns is to be first tenor, and Gen. Jim. Potter Sergeant-at-Arms. Ready, sing.

The Democratic Ticket.

The Republicans, as well as hundreds of Democrats in Centre county, agree with us in the opinion that the Democratic county ticket is eminently one not "fit to be made." The voice of the honest masses of the Democratic party was ignored, and the will of the Court House Ring ruled supreme. It is true that P. G. MEEK failed to get the nomination, which failure might lead some to think that so far as MEEK was concerned, the people triumphed over the Ring. But this is not so. MEEK had been served by the Ring. They had secured him the nomination and election to the State Legislature, twice. They thought this sufficient for PETER. Considering him served, the Ring had fixed upon J. G. MEYER as his successor. But BURNS came to town, as we have before stated, and insisted upon little PETER trying his hand again. He must have PETER in Harrisburg this winter. So MEEK came out and announced his willingness to go to the Legislature "dree dimes." He was pretty strong. He had the paper in his interest. He had an associate employed so that he had abundance of time to travel. And travel he did. What he did when he traveled, and how he abused his fellow-Democrats and competitors for office while he traveled, was fully reported by us, and never contradicted by PETER. He made a good fight.—He abused JACOB G. MEYER. He abused JARED FISHER because JARED insisted on the Delegates of Gregg tp. giving MEYER a complimentay vote. His classic language to JARED, when told that the vote of Gregg tp., would be simply complimentary, was—"Complimentary h—l—a complimentary vote may nominate him." But JARED persisted in it, and that complimentary vote did nominate the Ring's candidate for Assembly, JACOB G. MEYER.

MEEK fizzled, flash'd in the pan, "ause ker spellt," and let the whole world see that he did not amount to a row of pins when he undertook to fight FRED KURTZ and the Court House Ring.—FRED did betray MEEK outrageously. He professed to be for PETER—drank his whiskey, had GRAY carry it to his office by the bottlefull; cajoled, bamboozled: made fair promises to work for PETER—for work back when FRED'S turn came—played the hypocrite, the sycophant, the traitor, on Col. LOVE and others, and thus pulled the wool over PETER'S eyes most effectually. He was for MEYER'S and the Ring all through. Now MEEK says, "that little dutch villain FRED KURTZ defeated" him. No matter, PETER, how it was done. We know that you were defeated. That complimentary vote of Gregg tp. played the very deuce with you. You were knocked into "pi," set aside with other "dead matter," while the Ring triumphed in nominating for Assembly,

JACOB G. MEYER.

Now who is JACOB G. MEYER?—And what are his qualifications for the office to which he has been nominated? We have no disposition to misrepresent Mr. MEYER. We do not think it honorable to do so. Moreover we do not deem it necessary, for he has not the shadow of a chance for an election. He may be a more honest man than MEEK; but it is universally conceded that he has not as much brain as PETER. MEEK himself has a very poor opinion of JACOB G. MEYER.—Suppose we quote a line from MEEK'S travels. In this way we can learn what he thinks of MEYER. PETER said "I've carried the party on my back for the last five or six years, and if such mullet-headed dolts as JAKE MEYER are to crowd me off the track, I say the sooner the party goes to h-ll the better. Besides, Judge, who ever heard of a travelling singing-teacher amounting to anything? Humph, JAKE MEYER! a sweet stick he'd make to represent Centre county at Harrisburg. He'd better attend to his me-fa-sol-la-ing," &c.

So PETER tho't. We thank him for his honest opinion of JACOB. G., and from what we can learn of the man, MEEK was right.

The Reporter says, "Mr. MEYER is a farmer." Now, we think the truth is, that he never farmed enough to hurt either himself or the ground. He and work are not good friends. We have been told that at a very early age he and work had a fall-out—that in short, he made up his mind that it was not very respectable to work. So he concluded to make his living by "me fa sol-la-ing," as MEEK has it. Nor is this all. When he became singing-master, he felt nice—got too big for his clothes—got ashamed of his old associates and the name of his father, mother, brothers, &c. MOYER, was too dutch a name for a singing-teacher. MEYER, in his opinion, was more genteel. So he changed his name from J. G. MOYER to J. G. MEYER. His brothers still write their names MOYER. Such a man can never be elected to the Legislature by the votes of the honest yeomen of Centre county.

Suppose he would succeed in being elected! What use will he be to the people of the county? What will he do in Harrisburg? Will he not be a tool for such men as JAS. BURNS and Gen. JAS. POTTER? They will use him to accomplish their own purposes—to put money in their pockets. But his domo is sealed. He cannot be elected. JACOB G. MOYER, alias MEYER, will be elected to stay at home. JAS. P. COBURN is the people's choice.—He is able and competent.

Our space is too limited to go into detail on these candidates; we must, therefore, give the balance of the ticket but a passing notice. The candidate for Prothonotary is

JOHN MORAN.

He has been Commissioner's clerk since 1861. The Ring has now determined to rotate JOHN out of one office into another. They profess to love the soldier, but their hypocrisy is apparent in the very fact that they refused to nominate Maj. HARRY FORSTER, a wounded soldier, and placed upon their ticket, Mr MORAN. Such hypocrisy deserves a rebuke from the people.—We have no personal feeling against Mr. MORAN. We shall say nothing about his moral or private character, unless compelled to do so. We shall confine ourselves to his political principles—his qualifications for the office. He is not the man for Prothonotary.—He has no qualifications for the office. The lack of order in, and the present condition of the Commissioner's office is all the proof we deem necessary on this point. The Ring know this just as well, nay, better than we do. They nominated him, not because they deemed him fit, but because he was in the "ring" and was one of their best workers. Here again, in proof of our assertion we will quote from MEEK'S travels, to wit:

"We can always count on JNO; he is in the Ring, and if you want a renomination, Judge, you cannot do anything better than to tie to MORAN.—He is one of the best workers we have got in the ring."

This was MEEK'S opinion of MORAN before the nomination was made, and is, in our opinion, all the qualification he has for the office. He will be defeated by the people and the honest, independent portion of the Democratic party. JOHN will find that he will not rotate worth a continental red. SAM'L BARR, Esq., that true and noble soldier will fill that office for the next three years.

The Democratic candidate for Register and Clerk is

JOHN H. MORRISON.

He is well known to the people of Centre county. As there is not the slightest chance for his election, we shall say but little pro or con. Here, again, we are tempted to quote from MEEK'S travels, giving his opinion of Captain MORRISON. MEEK said:

"We want somebody who can, at least, write his name; and the Capt. was exceedingly unfortunate in his youth in not getting to school. It wo'd be a great shame to put in Morrison, who never could make a decent living."

Now Meek should know whereof he affirms. We believe that he is not qualified to fill the office. His election wo'd be a great misfortune to the people of the county, and especially our Pennsvalley German friends. The Register should be a German, or able at least to speak the German language fluently. This Mr. Morrison cannot do. His opponent can. The wealthy German farmers of the county must die as well as others. Their Executors or Administrators are generally German. They must settle up these large estates. They feel best when they can address the Register in their own language. It is right and proper that the wishes of this large portion of our fellow-citizens should be consulted. This the "Ring" refused to do. They treated, with contempt, the claims of that high-minded, honorable man, Samuel Herring, of Gregg tp., and sold out J. P. Gephart. The nomination of John H. Morrison over such men, was a direct, and we believe, an intentional insult not only to Mr Herring, but to the people of Pennsvalley, and more especially to Gregg tp. We believe that the independent German Democrats of Centre county will resent this insult at the polls on the 2nd Tuesday of October next. The Republican Convention placed in nomination a first class man for the office, in the person of W. Curtin, Esq. Upon this subject we will have more to say, anon.

For Commissioner the Ring nominated

of Curtin tp. He was promised the nomination last year, and was cheated out of it. So they had to do something for Joseph this time. He has been a good Democrat since the breaking up of the Know-Nothing party.—All thro' the war he "Rah'd" for Jeff. Davis, and spent his time in inducing his friends to desert from the Union army. For these services the Ring nominated him. He is unfit to fill the office. He does not possess any qualification whatever. He can scarcely write his own name, and is, therefore, not the man to watch over the interests of the tax-payers of Centre county.—His nomination is an insult to every intelligent Democrat in the county.—There are honest and intelligent Democrats in Curtin tp. Why were they not nominated? Where was Peter Robb, David Brickley, Conrad Singer, Wm. Mann, and a dozen others that we might name? Why were these men who are able and competent, cast aside? Why were the claims of John Sweeny overlooked? Where were Henry Dunkle and Benj. Schaffer, of Walker tp.? It is the duty of a party to put forth its best men. By nominating Mr. McCloskey, the Ring has said that he is the best man in Curtin tp. How is this Mr. Robb, and ye intelligent Democrats of Curtin? But for the present we must forbear. We will have more to say of Mr. McCloskey next week.

We will also notice the balance of the Democratic ticket. Daniel W. Woodring and Simon S. Wolf will receive our especial attention.

WE understand that poor Gronoble, who received such an unkind cut from Fred. Kurtz, last week, has promised Fred. a half barrel of kraut. Kurtz is to apologize for his outrageous assertion that Gronoble was "unfit for any kind of labor."

Our Sentiments.

We agree with the Philadelphia Press when it speaks out boldly in favor of an active and vigorous campaign. There is no time for idleness or apathy. Every Republican worthy of the name should be up and doing, exerting every nerve for the success of our time-honored principles. Centre county must be redeemed from the rule of the Court House Ring. The 7½ mills county tax assessed to keep up these lazy and corrupt dignitaries must be diminished, and our county expenses reduced to the old Republican standard of 2½ mills.

Just here, let us ask the question: Why is our county tax, under the rule of the Court House Ring, 7½ mills to the dollar, when it was only 2½ mills to the dollar when the Republican party controlled the county? And still another. Why does it cost the Democrats 5 mills more to the dollar to manage the affairs of the county than it did the Republicans? These are questions of importance to the tax-payers of Centre county. Do you not think Democracy rather an expensive luxury? We know you do. We must have a change. This Court House Clique must be defeated. The whole "Ring" must be cleaned out.

But how is it to be done? Why, simply by earnest effort—by active, energetic work. By convincing the people—the tax-payers of Centre county—that they have been wronged, and outrageously imposed upon by a set of unprincipled men who have grown rich on small salaries. Can honest laboring men, or farmers, amass fortunes and build $10,000 houses on salaries of $300 or $400 per annum? Can working men clear $10,000 in ten years on a salary of $300 a year? No! Of course they cannot. Then how do the pimps manage to do it? Tax-payers of Centre, will you never arouse to a sense of your duty? Will you forever fold your arms and consent to be robbed by shrewd but unprincipled men, whose only love of Democracy consists in gathering in the spoils?

Awake! arise! gird on your armor and go forth, as freemen, determined to be free. Cast off the shackles which have so long bound you, and with a resolute will, and a giants arm, strike the blow that will hurl from power and place, the men who have so long betrayed and robbed you.

To this end we must work—work vigorously, unitedly, harmoniously. Apathy must be driven from our ranks. Every hour must be improved. The campaign must be opened in earnest. The Democrats expect to find us sleeping at our post, and thus gain an easy victory; but in this we must disappoint them. Let us have meetings in every school house. Let every township or school district be closely canvassed. Let us see to it that every voter is registered and prepared for the great work before us. Centre county must be redeemed, and the State Administration and the Supreme Bench saved to Liberty and the Republican party.

The Phil'a. Press, as we said in the outset, speaks our sentiments when it says:

"It is evident that the Democrats "intend to do their work without much "noise. Men who operate chiefly with "money in elections avoid all other ar"guments. In fact, they have so little to say for themselves that they "fear the field of reason. With the "Republicans it is different. They "court discussion. They live by the "exhibition and vindication of their "record. They must not, therefore, "allow themselves to be deluded by a "silent campaign. The more public "their efforts, the more active their "canvassers and orators, the better for "themselves."

☞The Green Bay Advocate, one of the oldest most consistent, and reliable Democratic journals published in Wisconsin, in which the negro now enjoys the right of suffrage, in its issue of the 8th inst., says:

"The whole subject is a dead issue, and in passing from theory to practice we are glad it is so near a solution. If the African race in the Southern States were on a par with the colored people as we find them among us, we should have little fear of the result. We have no more prejudice against a man on account of the color of his skin than the color of his coat. We have watched with interest the course of life of the colored people of this State, and, so far as we have been able to determine, they are well qualified to vote and are clearly entitled to that privilege. They are industrious, temperate, law-abiding, and intelligent."

☞The Scranton Republican says:—"A good many people who are opposed to monopolies will be asked to vote for Asa Packer for Governor.—This wealthy gentleman is not only President of the Lehigh Valley monopoly, but he is a director of the Jersey Central and Morris and Essex and thus directly interested in the dominant interests of the Lackawanna Valley. Anybody who votes for him in the hope of striking a blow at overshadowing corporate interests will commit a grievous error. If there is a man in Pennsylvania who more than another embodies the idea that the interests of consolidated capital are opposed to those of the general public and of the laboring classes, that man is Asa Packer. With him installed at Harrisburg, the railroad company would have everything their own way."

MEEK'S "little dutch villain" of the Centre Hall Reporter, FRED. KURTZ, says we called him an "ass." Not so, FRED. We said nine. Ass-i-g, was the word. Forsteigh sell, FRED?

From the Pittsburg Commercial.

Asa Packer--His Course During The War And Since.

The critical readers of our paper ought to be pretty well posted in regard to the antecedents of the Democratic nominee for Governor. We have now, however, procured some new evidence of his skill in eluding taxation, but will very briefly notice the points heretofore made before furnishing our readers with it. Asa Packer was one of the thirty-five anti-Douglas delegates from Penn'a to the National Democratic Convention in April, 1860, and during that memorable convention at Charleston, Baltimore and Richmond, did everything in his power to disrupt the Democratic party and bring on the rebellion headed by Jeff. Davis & Co.

As has been fully explained by Captain F. H. Rauch, and not denied by any one, Mr. Packer bolted the nomination of Douglas and zealously supported Breckinridge and Lane in 1860. His influence during the war was entirely with the Copperheads; all his surroundings were of the extremest pro-slavery character. Vallandigham, when driven from home by the loyalty of the Buckeye State, sought refuge on the banks of the Lehigh, and at the home of this same Asa Packer. At a still later period, when the Confederacy was crumbling beneath sturdy blows inflicted by the Union arms, he went to Europe to avoid seeing the miseries inflicted upon his rebel friends.

In filling the Union army, the ponderous legal opinion of his special friend, Judge Woodward, failed to set aside the acts of Congress, and the inexorable draft went on. To avoid it Carbon county had to resort to bounties to volunteers, and of course a bounty tax had to be assessed. The assessing under the solemnity of an oath estimated the personal property of Asa Packer, not at $20,000,000, but at $1,000,000. The fifteenth section of the act of May, 1841, gave him the right of appeal to the County Commissioners of Carbon county, who in that case would have heard his own statement under oath, and reduced the valuation accordingly. The law gave him this right. His own personal, political friends were the administrators of the law. Did he, like an honest man, seek redress in this way? Thousands have had resort to this simple and efficacious remedy of a wrong. No! He pretended that he had removed to Phil'a,—was as he said, domiciled at the Merchants' Hotel, in that city. His taxes for bounty, school, borough, county and State purposes amounted to $32,500. A goodly sum we admit, but only as the same rate the poorest miner in his employ paid on his property. Asa Packer's house, furniture, family, aye, himself, too, to all appearances, remained at Mauch Chunk, as they had done for thirty years before. His own political friends could not see this trumped-up removal as a genuine one, and refused to abate his taxation. The case went to Court. Two law firms were retained to enforce the collection by the county and borough authorities. This resulted in a compromise, by which he engaged to pay the taxes of 1867, and the authorities let him off in the future, on the ground of his payment of his personal taxes in Philadelphia.

We have before us the certificate of Mr. W. F. Smith, that he has carefully examined the assessments of the Sixth ward, Philadelphia, where Mr. Packer claims his residence is, from 1864 to 1869, and that Asa Packer's name only appears for one year, to wit: 1867-8. The other five years are all blanks. In 1867-8 his name appears on the tax list as follows: First, his salary as railroad president, $,2,800; second, money at interest, $13,500; third, gold watches, $2. The whole tax would probably be $32 50, instead of $32,500 at Mauch Chunk. And having accomplished his purpose by geting off the assessor's books at his own proper home, he mysteriously disappears from the tax records of Philadelphia, and since this twenty millionaire is a wandering carpet-bagger, and pays taxes nowhere.

This, however, is not the whole of the exhibit. We have also before us, as we write, the certificate of James N. Kerns that Asa Packers's return to the Assessor of the United States for internal taxes is one gold watch and some silver plate, the tax upon which amounted to the exormous sum of $8 95. This bloated bondholder, "worth over $20,000,000," as the Chairman of the Democratic Committee certified to his Allegheny County Committee two days since, pays no personal taxes in Pennsylvania, and only $8 95 to the United States internal Revenue. If he did not hurt the rebels much during the war, certainly he will not help the soldiers and sailors much during peace.

Asa Packer's friends boast that he gave a half million to his church for a college, and that he gave $20,000 annually to run the party machine in the State, and this year is to give them one hundred thousand to elect him Governor, and yet all that ever rumor has credited him with contributing to put down the rebellion is the paltry sum of $50, though for two years past he has not paid one cent of personal tax to the borough, county or State wherein he resides, and only the paltry sum of $8 95 to the United States. These certificates are left at the office of the Commercial to be seen by any Democrat who questions these statements.

The Frankfort (Ky.) Yeoman, a paper as antediluvian in its propensities as the better class of Democratic journals in Pennsylvania, calls the Louisville Courier and Journal to account for showing symptoms of good sense by calling public attention to the disease-stricken character of the Democratic party. With a horrified air the Yeoman inquires:

Does it mean to be understood as saying that the Democratic party now has no common ground to stand upon; or that the highest measure of just liberality does not extend to all its parts? That the party at present has no policy, or, at least, no national policy? And that, as a national organization, the party is so far behind the "spirit of the age," that the intelligence of the country cannot organize under its banner? If it does not mean these things, what, we ask again does it mean?

Whereupon the Courier administers solace by saying that it does "in part mean these things," but prefers to state them in its own way. In its own way, then, it proceeds: "The Democracy has, at the present time no common ground to stand on, and presents no policy that can be called national." Then comes a very natural glorification of this party with "no common ground," and with "no policy that can be called national," wherein it is claimed to be liberal. But as if in hasty repentance for the extravagant claim, the eulogy winds up thus: "But to the extent that some of its partitions cling to the dry bones and dead languages of a former political generation, it is "behind the spirit of the age.'"

At the risk of having the Courier lampooned by every pre-Adamite journal in Pennsylvania, we give its evidence of this want of 'common ground' and "nationality:"

"Take the negro question. Is the Democracy united on that? In Mississippi, in Massachusetts, and in Tennessee, the Democratic or Conservative elements are committed to negro suffrage. In Kentucky the negro is not even allowed to testify in the courts. Take the finances. Do they furnish common ground for the Democracy to stand on? We find the Eastern wing of the party committed to a policy that is absolutely rejected in the West, whilst at the South repudiation outright is the prevailing sentiment."

The next announcement is such a Brunus thrust at the proscriptive and intolerant proclivities of the party, especially in the South, that we wonder at the temerity of the Courier. Perhaps the "Regulators" have something to do with this seeming necessity for free discussion. No, we give the Courier credit for genuineness, and shall look to it to see that hereafter the right to entertain and express an opinion, in Kentucky especially, is not a cause for immediate ostracism, if that opinion happens to conflict with the Azoic Democracy. But we give the words: "The Republicans derive a great advantage from the freedom with which their newspapers discuss internal questions of policy. Hitherto the Democratic press has stuck too close under the shadow of the mouldering wall which marks the existence of its past glory."

"These things" lose none of their suggestiveness when transferred from Kentucky to Penn'a, for nothing can be more obsolete than the Packerite philosophy. It is as barren of principle as the rocks of Terra del Fuego are of verdure. Without nationality, without common ground, without anything invigorating and manly, the Democracy are here running a broken-down machine on the expectation of a handsome dividend from a twenty million purse.

SIXTY times was Major General J. W. GEARY under fire, and he was never defeated when in command. In one of the fiercest battles of the war, his first-born son was shot down near him, but he never faltered. His field-service was of the hardest kind from the opening to the close of the war.

Now let us have ASA PACKER'S record. Where did he expose his precious person—on the field? How much, if any, of his $20,000,000 went to support the Government when imperilled by traitors and rebels?

How can soldiers act with a party whose standard-bearer is ASA PACKER? And how can the Watchman implore its readers to vote for soldiers on the Democratic county ticket, and in the very same breath denounce that gallant soldier—Gen. JOHN W. GEARY?

☞The Boston Transcript says:—"The Republican party has been severely criticised and condemned for maintaining martial law in the South at the time of its greatest disturbance since the war, when outrages and murders were constantly occurring.—Horatio Seymour and John T. Hoffman were among the fiercest declaimers against Republican usurpation in this regard. Yet at the first indication of trouble between the employees of two railroads, Governor Hoffman threatens to put the whole district, where the disturbance occurs, under martial law."

THE Light in which the Southern people regard the Chinese movement is shown by a paragraph in the Savannah Republican which coolly remarks that "some fifteen hundred" Chinamen have been ordered through the "agency here, chiefly by citizens and planters along the coast." What's the difference between "ordering" fifteen hundred black men from Africa and the same number of yellow men from China?

☞The Alexandria (Va.) Gazette of last Tuesday says: "We have a report from Richmond that there is a talk in political circles there of a proposed 'fusion' of the present political committees—by each of these committees choosing five more members, constituting what is to be called the 'Grant Republican Committee for the State,' and they to request as many of the elected members of the Legislature as will be necessary to make a quorum to resign, so that men may be elected who will take the oath.

Then for this 'quorum' to meet, pass the fifteenth amendment, elect United States Senators, and adjourn until Congress meets and ratifies the action. We give this scheme as reported. It is in agitation, no doubt."

☞Gov. Geary has reduced the State debt at the rate of a million dollars a year, since he was Governor, notwithstanding the State tax has been entirely taken off real estate.

In the five months that Gen. Grant has been President he has reduced the national debt $40,000,000.

Did anybody ever hear of the Copperhead party reducing a State or National debt? We should like to be pointed to the instance. Under Johnson the taxes were heavier than they are under Grant, but Democratic rings and plunderers in general stole the greater part of it in excess of the legitimate expenses of running the government.

☞It is now stated that General Canby made known to the Walker party in Virginia, previous to the late election, that he would consider it his duty to enforce the test oath in the admission of members of the Legislature. He did this that they might choose candidates understandingly, but the leaders of that party, with extraordinary duplicity, suppressed the knowledge and proceeded to support men who could not take the oath. General Canby, will now act as shall be resolved upon at Washington.

☞The Detroit Free Press (Democratic) deems it already settled that no party can succeed in the next Presidential election without inscribing upon its banner universal amnesty, and probably universal suffrage, a tariff for purposes of revenue and not protection, a speedy return to specie payments, and a most rigidly honest, faithful and economical administration of the Government, to the end that taxes may be largely diminished.

LOST.—On Wednesday or Thursday of last week, a pair of steel-frame spectacles, in a new morocco case. Any person finding them, and leaving them at this office, will be suitably rewarded.

JUDGE HOSTERMAN, of whose unimpeachable integrity and purity of conscience we have, of late, had frequent occasions to dilate, is the owner of the "coming horse." Clean limbed, sparely-cut, and "all horse," the Judge's game nag will take the stamps on the fair grounds this fall.

BIZ.—We have secured the services of several tip-top, wide-awake reporters in several of the principal villages in this county, whose ready pens will weekly "spell" for our columns everything with which our readers should be put in possession. Big things are on the tapis, and those who intend to keep posted cannot do otherwise than mail us the stamps, and take the People's Organ—the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.

SUGGESTIVE.—On Saturday last, one of our Judicial county officials, thoroughly imbued with the Democratic doctrine of "win or bust," attempted to pass a conservative driver, of Republican antecedents, on the road to this city. Just after making a good, and apparently winning point, the judges' buggy became fearfully demoralized, and necessitated a "laying over" for repairs, while his Republican competitor easily passed him. So, we prognosticate, will result the October election. Our Democratic friends, now making a desperate splurge over Packer and Meyers, are doing their "level best," just preceding a most crushing and utter defeat.

GIRLS, says an exchange, should make it a rule to cultivate their brains. Some pretty girls "finish their education" too soon—entirely too soon—and an ill developed beauty is all their stock in trade. Liberal education can be made to tell in the face, and improves natural beauty It is an outrage on nature, is a pretty girl (and a fortiori so in a beautiful one) to neglect her brains. If she does this, her beauty is rather an object of pity than of either admiration or wonder—made more pitiable by the adoption of charms that are bought in the store. It is in the power of most young ladies to make themselves literally but a "step lower than the angels." Their will determines the whole matter.

THERE is one institution in Bellefonte, of which our citizens may well be proud—our Academy. Its success has exceeded the most sanguine hopes of its friends. Mr. Hughes deserves, not only the gratitude of our people, but their hearty and substantial support. Few know how much below its real value, is paid for the labors of our most useful men—our good teachers of youth. The time has come to remedy this wrong constantly perpetrated upon those to whom we owe most. Let our citizens, in both town and county, make it a point to fill the rooms of the Academy at once, in this, the opening of their school year, with the youth who need, and are there so certain to secure a liberal and moral education.

OUR August Term of the Courts of Centre county, furnished us few items of interest. The term was for but one week, and there will be no adjourned court before November Term. The only cause exciting much interest was the trial of Eugene F. Johnson, for the murder of Levi Ennis, at Philipsburg. He was found guilty of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to solitary confinement at hard labor, for a term of eight years.

There were the usual number of Assaults and Batteries, Liquor prosecutions, which the Court was particularly severe upon, and the other offences which seem never quite to end. The Court was uninteresting to spectators, excepting in the one homicide case.

CENTRE HALL.—Few of our embryo cities are exhibiting half the enterprise, pluck and public spirit displayed by this most delightfully located village. With its extensive machine shop giving steady employment to a large number of workmen; its wagon and carriage manufactories, blacksmith shops, etc., Centre Hall presents the appearance of thrift, enterprise and substantial prosperity.—Her churches are ample, and, we may say, well attended; her schools renowned for their efficiency, and the beauty of some of her private residences is a subject of general remark. Among these last we may mention the home of that staunch Republican, Geo. Odenkirk, Esq,

The inevitable John Spangler has managed to win for his hotel a deserving, and, so to speak, paying reputation, and is a favorite resort of certain of our Bellefonte gentry. All in all, we are most agreeably surprised, on each successive visit to lovely Pennsvalley, in noting the evident growth and material advancement of Centre Hall. Of course such villages have their drawbacks and objectionable features. Fred. Kurtz is located in the midst of town, of whose progress and enterprise he is remarkably cautious in mentioning, preferring dirty personal abuse in his columns, to deserving notices of the town thus unaccountably stricken by his presence.

OUR new Public School building in Bellefonte is a credit to the contractors and to the citizens, and is nearly complete. The Board of School Directors now in charge of our public schools deserve great credit for the liberality and good judgment shown by them in the provision made for the education of our youth. One more thing remains to be done. They must carefully select, and to do that successfully, they must liberally pay the teachers who are to have charge of these schools. Present prices are not sufficient to secure the best talent, for, with the cost of living in Bellefonte, they offer no inducement beyond those of the country townships.

S. L. BARR, when a Sergeant in the 148th Pa. Vol's, had his right arm shot off at Bristow Station, Va. Afterwards being assigned to duty, (although he had but one arm,) at his own request, he behaved so well that he was commissioned a Lieutenant in the Veteran Reserve Corps. He was assigned to the responsible duty of guarding the Washington Depot, and succeeded in arresting a large number of deserters, bounty-jumpers, spies and scoundrels of the very many different sorts so common in those days. He was assigned to the command of a company that was said to be on the point of mutiny, and he succeeded in making it a model company, and when in command of it on the railroad near Washington, he held his bridge against the advance of Gen. Early's army, losing three of his men killed, and several wounded and captured in the fight; but he held the bridge and saved it.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—We regret our inability to attend the annual meeting of the Trustees of this famed State Institution, held on Thursday last. Annually, as the vast advantages of this important State Educator become more thoroughly known and recognized, does the report of its Trustees exhibit that increase in attendance, and flattering advancement commensurate with its just and popular designs. The old farming regime is rapidly giving way, and being supplanted by a system of educated farming, propelled by educated and thinking agriculturists, thoroughly conversant with the scientific knowledge of soils, their properties, uses, and with the best possible theory touching their continuous use to the best advantage. Without speaking more extendedly of an Institution growing like as the prairie grass in spring, we append our belief, that the State Agricultural College will speedily demonstrate its imperative importance to the needs and requirements of every successful agriculturist in the Commonwealth.

A MEETING was held at the Republican Club Rooms, on Saturday evening, Sept 4th, 1869. The meeting was called to order by John T. Johnson, Esq, and Jno. Irwin, Jr., elected Chairman, and Jno. G. Love, Secretary. On motion, the Committee formerly appointed on organization, failing to report, were discharged, and the following named persons appointed: Capt. A B Hutchison, Jesse Clinger and Jno. G. Love, who reported as follows on permanent organization:—President, Jno. Irwin, Jr; Vice Presidents, J. B Ettelle, D K Tate, Wm. Shortlidge and A. O Furst; Recording Secretary, Capt. Isaac Lytle; Corresponding Secretary, Jas. H Rankin; Treasurer, E. M. Blanchard; Financial Committee, E. M. Blanchard, F. S Wilson, Wm. P. Duncan, Levi A. Miller and Daniel Rhoads. The report of the Committee was adopted, and the above named officers elected. Capt. A. B. Hutchison was then called upon, who spoke on the importance of immediate action, and the encouraging prospects of the campaign. Gen'l Jas A. Beaver followed in a neat and forcible speech on the policy of conducting the campaign. J.B.Butts was then called for, who made a good, but brief speech. Wm. P. Wilson, Esq., followed, speaking of the cheering prospects for redeeming Centre county from the control of the Democratic party.—There was a good feeling prevalent, and a disposition manifested in favor of working and winning. The meeting adjourned to meet on Saturday evening the 11th inst. JNO. G. LOVE.
Secretary.

THE L., C & S. C. RAILROAD.—In connection with its report of the late railroad meeting at Millheim, the Mifflinburg Telegraph makes the following seasonable and sensible resume of the situation and requirements of the hour:

The responsibility of success or failure is now placed upon the shoulders of the citizens along the line of the proposed Lewisburg and Spruce Creek Railroad. We beg, we beseech, we implore our people to arouse to the importance of this enterprise and not let slip the golden opportunity now presented. We have the means, we have them in abundance; we only lack the spirit of progress that will not exist without railroad facilities in this day to awaken us from the Rip Van Winkle sleep into which these rich and glorious Valleys have fallen. Young men, up and at them! Merchants, Mechanics and Farmers; what is a year's business in comparison with the mighty importance of a great thoroughfare thro' Buffalo and Penn's Valley. Take no council from "old women," whether in petticoats or breeches! The Railroad is a grand and mighty educator. The construction of this connecting link would place us upon a direct short line between New York and San Francisco. The result in ten years would revolutionize every branch of industry, build up our schools and churches, and double and tripple our possessions. For the proofs of this we need but refer to our neighboring towns; or it is seen everywhere in this land. The question admits of no argument, and stern duty demands of every business man, merchant, mechanic and farmer, that he devote his time and his money to the work, and no relaxation until the iron horse, now panting and longing at Lewisburg for a flight to Spruce Creek, shall awaken us to this new life with his enervating influences.

Let every one make up his mind to do something to further the enterprise. Let petty jealousies go, and turn a deaf ear to all who council that the work cannot be achieved. We are all interested, and if we but do our duty, each and all of us, manfully and promptly, it will be oppressive to none, and yet it will enable the contract to be sealed, and work resumed before winter sets in. To your tents, O railroad men!

STOVES.—Our friend Isaac Haupt is more actively than ever engaged in the stove business. Our space is too limited to say more this week. In our next we will have a lengthier mention.

NEW MEAT MARKET.—Our enterprising young friend, L. A. Miller, who is an indispensable appendage to our community, has opened a meat market, on Allegheny street, immediately opposite his celebrated tobacco store. Give him a trial.

WE have received a copy of our old cotemporary, the Bellefonte National, revived by C. B. Gould, and improved in typographical appearance. It is Republican in politics still, and filled with a considerable amount of reading matter, mostly selections. We believe its editorial departments is not yet filled, but some arrangement for it are making.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., of Buffalo, N.Y., is the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, which he Warrants to cure Catarrh in all its forms and stages. And further, he offers $500 for case of that dreadful disease that he cannot cure. If your druggist has not yet got this remedy on sale, don't be put off with some worse than worthless strong snuff "fumigator," or poisonous caustic solution, but enclose sixty cents to the proprietor and it will reach you by return mail. For sale by most druggists every where.

For the Republican.

The campmeeting that was in progress near Milesburg, closed on Friday morning, the 27th ult. The meeting was such, for order, interest and power, as has scarcely, if ever, been held in this community. A detailed account would, no doubt, be interesting to many.

The meeting commenced under very favorable circumstances. The Rev. E. Butler, minister in charge, was at his post, faithfully discharging his duty, and at an early stage of the meeting, penitents were at the alter for prayer.—Among the many ministers who were present during the meeting, none were disposed to shirk duty. All seemed to have but one common aim in view—the glory of God, and the salvation of men. Among these true and tried embassadors of Christ, was E. Butler, who, for zeal and energy in the good cause, has no superior. Being far past the meridian of life, it may be said of him, that he is but a day's march from home. Next was the Rev. Warren, who is a self-made man, but having stood on the walls of Zion for some 25 years, has become a sound theologian, and fails not to proclaim the whole counsel of God to fallen man. Next was the Elder, Rev. McMurray, who, for earnestness in his appeals to man, would move the heart, tho' hard as adamant. Rev. McMurray has labored, for many years, to win souls to Christ. Last, but not least, was Rev. Mullen, tho' comparatively young in the ministry, yet his appeals of eloquence and power, his lofty flights, his touching elucidations, his enchanting descriptions of the land of the blest and the home of the christian, would make the hearer feel, and exclaim, as did the disciples of Christ, at the transfiguration on the Mount, "It is good for us to be here." Then there are Castleman, Cleaver, Reese and Robbins, all able Divines, entirely devoted to the promotion of the great cause of truth and Apostolic Christianity. The meeting was one long to be remembered by the church, and the many who espoused the good cause at that time. Forty-five gave their names as having embraced religion, while many more who were converted during the meeting, had left the ground before its close. The order, during the entire meeting, was unexampled. On Sunday it was estimated that over one thousand people were on the ground, and amid this vast multitude, not one instance of drunkenness was seen; not even loud or unnecessary talking, and all agree that better order was never witnessed on any similar occasion. HOPE.

"GRANDFATHERS' STOVE."
Our grandfather's stove, what a funny old thing,
So deep, so wide and so tall;
Now the people would say, who are stylish and gay,
"It was only a hole in the wall."
It matters not what, it was pleasant to see
When night's mantle was flung over all;
Grandfather take down his good book and read
By the light from the hole in the wall.
As the sturdy young men rolled in the great logs,
They would laugh at each wintry squall,
While grandma would sit on her old chair and knit
By the light from the whole in the wall.
The girls then wore home spun, and so did their beaux's,
For pride was a principle small;
And courting was done and hearts have been won
By the light from the hole in the wall.
The neighbors were friendly wherever they'd meet,
With a word of true kindness for all;
And joy was complete to hear voices so sweet
Ring round that old hole in the wall.
In those days we know, folks cared not for show,
Of improvements knew nothing at all;
But 'twas really no joke, when great clouds of smoke
Rushed out from the hole in the wall.
But those days are now o'er, we shall know them no more,
And all those old fashions have flown;
Whilst the solemn and gay are coming each day
To purchase the famous "OLD HOUSE."
Coming not only in couples, but in scores, as hundreds of good and wise men and women have done before, to look upon this magnificent stove, which is acknowledged to be the best cooking stove of the age. Remember the place,

WEDNESDAY MORNING Sept. 8. '69.

Live Stock.

No man can be a real bona fide farmer without live stock, and farmers may be classed in some measure according to the quality of their animals. Away from cities and populous places it is impossible to keep up the fertility of the land to make it pay unless the produce is chiefly consumed by the live stock and converted into meat, milk or wool, or animals for use by other people, as payment to the farmer for his time and capital, and transmuted into manure as a reward to the land, without which return no farm can be kept in condition good enough to pay for cultivation. This is the first secret of successful farming away from places were it answers to send to market hay, straw, garden stuff, &c., but there are others which unfold themselves in the course of raising and feeding. The next in importance is to manage so that no time may be lost in the growth of the young, and to house and feed in such a manner as to carry on the improvement wrought in summer through the Autumn, Winter, and Spring; after which the grand secret is to breed and raise such animals only as command the highest market price, which is as easily done as to continue breeding an unthrifty and unprofitable race.

If a farmer has a useful common grade stock, healthy and good breeders. milkers, &c., but the progeny never selling for more than barely sufficiant to enable him to pay his way, just reckon the difference it would make to him if he went to a good breeder, say of Short-Horn for instance, and bought a bull, minding when purchasing to see the dam of the animal he selects, for if he wants milk as well as meat, he must see that she gives some: then when his bull's stock comes into the herd, take the place of the old ones, he will reap an advantage every way. It will be the same with sheep: the laying out of something extra for a ram or rams from a first rate flock, will add to his wool and mutton, as also cause his future young ones to come to maturity earlier, and, what will be of great consequence to the farmers of this country for years to come, these better bred animals can be brought out fat at that season of the year when all common stock is low in flesh, and all varieties of meat sell for 20 or 30 per cent. more than at other times. Live stock and plenty of it, is the great preventive to a farm running out, and to the owner becoming poor: it will brighten the faculties of a bad farmer, and draw out the latent powers of mind which have been rusting for years, for with a heavy stock of all kinds of cattle and sheep, he has to forecast for each day, week, month and year; aye, and more than a year.—Country Gentleman.

Culture in the Farm House.

Glancing idly this rainy morning at one of our city dailies, my attention is attracted by a line under the well known head of "Hints to Farmers." "Don't buy a piano for your daughters while your sons need a plow."

Now. being a Yankee, I shall venture to "guess," as, if I were of the masculine gender, I should certainly "bet," and that right heavily, that the man who wrote those "Hints" had neither sons nor daughters.—Furthermore, he had no money to invest in either plow or pianos, and he knew nothing of farming excepting what he had read about it. Neither was he writing in the country amid the songs of the birds and the hum of a myriad forms of happy life. No, he was a poor, miserable, cynical old bachelor, who was condemned for his sins to get up proper variety for a city newspaper, at so much per column, and didn't get well paid for it. As he sat striving for ideas in the fifth story of a third-rate boarding-house, his landlady's daughter was thumming an old rickety piano below, and not daring to vent his spleen on her, he cowardly took to abusing the unconscious piano.

Don,t you pay any attention to such "hints," farmers! They are all written to sell, and don't you be sold by them. You know the wants of your sons and daughters better than any old seedy scribbler can tell you. If your daughters, or sons, have a taste for music, cultivate it as liberally as your means will allow, and never fear it will not pay you back as well as your finest field of wheat! It will not hinder the plow! Never fear that! The plow boy,s whistle is proverbial, and don't we all know he plows the faster for his whistling? His horses are enlivened by it, and speed the faster through the field. His own fatigue, and the heat of the day, are disregarded and unfelt.

If the spring work drives, let your daughters help. They can ride on the corn-planter as easily and gracefully as in an elegant carriage, and far more usefully. Then, when they are through the spring work, and everything is growing without their aid, let them in the pleasant eventide gather around the piano, sons and daughters both, and be sure that the piano is a good one! You would not use a poor, old plow.—From "Piano vs. Plow" in July Phrenological Journal.

THE first California fruit car arrived in Chicago, on the 28th day of July. The fruit was in good condition. The car was only five days on the way.

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERG'S.

Sung to the Tune of "Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now comple connection's made,—
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedily and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about,
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG.
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of the elegant and substantial Spring and Summer Clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of traveling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest prices.

Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality,

RANGING FROM $6.50 TO $18.00

SEWING MACHINES.

AMERICAN BUTTON-HOLE OVER-SEAMING AND SEWING MACHINE COMBINED.

MEDAL AWARDED AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION, 1867.

In directing attention to the celebrated COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE, we feel fully warranted in claiming for it unquestionable superiority over all others as a Family Machine.—The Simplicity, Ease and Certainty with which it operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, certainly place it far in advance of any other similar invention of the age.

It is also the cheapest, intrinsically, as well as the best, since it is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and, in a word, it combines with those advantages exclusively its own the most desirable qualities of all others, for it not only does every variety of sewing in a SUPERIOR MANNER, but in addition OVERSEAMS splendidly and makes beautiful BUTTON and EYELET HOLES in all fabrics. This is far beyond the capacity of any other machine.

The SPLENDID MECHANISM of this Machine, and the superior skill workmanship and materials employed in its construction, are a guarantee of accuracy, strength and durability and enable the company and its agents to Warrant Every Machine they sell to give entire satisfaction.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN ON THE MACHINE GRATUITOUSLY.

Lessons may be taken if desired with a view to test the Machine, or to become better acquainted with it before deciding to purchase. Samples of work will be furnished upon application at

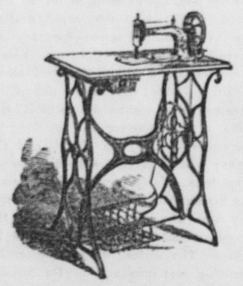
SEWING MACHINE.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINE.



Among sewing machines, those made by the Singer Manufacturing Company, rank with the highest. Their manufacturing machines, have long been known as the best for manufacturing purposes. But within the past few years, they have given special attention to the production of a destined to win much favor in the HOUSEHOLD.

The machine which they now offer is quiet light-running, simple, fast, noiseless. Its accessories for

HEMMING, BRAIDING, BINDING,

QUILTING, TUCKING, CORDING,

FELLING, GATHERING,

are simple and easily understood. Its delicate though enduring and tireless muscles of iron and steel, do all the work noiselessly, better, and few will deny, "Faster than hand can do it." They urge those wishing to purchase a machine, to examine all the other manufactures before buying, as it will, for itself, overcome all the objections to the other machines that can be brought against it. Machines on hand for sale and exhibition, together with a full and complete assortment of
